Entry Form for Clemens Library Art Contest

Work should be submitted by March 10 to David Malone in Clemens Library or Kelly Kraemer in Alcuin Library

Artist Name _____________________________________________________________

Address ________________________________________________________________

Phone __________________________________________________________________

E-mail address __________________________________________________________

Title of Work ____________________________________________________________

Medium __________________________________________________________________

Price (if you wish to sell the work) __________________________________________

Please also submit a statement of approximately 100 words relating the intentions, motivations or themes of your work.

Although the library will take as much care as possible with all work submitted to the contest, submission to the contest relieves the library from any damage or theft that may occur while in the library’s possession.