CALLING ALL STUDENTS WITH STUDY ABROAD EXPERIENCE!

International Students currently at CSB/SJU and U.S. Students who have studied abroad

Come participate in an international cultural exchange!

Saturday, January 30, 2010, 4-6:00 pm in Gorecki 204 A&B, CSB

You can simply attend to enjoy the displays and opportunities to converse, or prepare or contribute to a table with friends with photos, books, maps, schedules, scrapbooks, or other mementoes of your international experience. Deadline for requesting a table: Monday, January 25, 2010, 3 pm to Mary Niedenfuer (mniedenfuer@csbsju.edu).

You can also submit entries to two contests responding to the following theme:

Tell us about a specific undergraduate international experience that changed you somehow (your goals, your expectations, your view of the world, your view of yourself, of your own or another culture, etc.). Why was this experience memorable, powerful, transformative?

1. Essay Contest (prize for 1st place)
   • 500-750 words
   • In English (though other languages can be incorporated into it)
   • Cover page with your name and title of essay; no name on essay itself
   • Submitted electronically to Mary Niedenfuer (mniedenfuer@csbsju.edu) by 4 pm on January 20, 2010.
   • One essay entry per person
2. Multimedia Response to the same theme (prize for 1st place)
   • In English (though other languages can be incorporated into it)
   • Cover page with your name and title of work
   • Possible formats:
     • 3-4 minute video reflection
     • Original song or poem
     • Poster or collage
     • Other ideas? Confirm concept prior to submission with Karen Erickson (kerickson@csbsju.edu)
   • One multimedia response entry per person, though you can submit both essay and multimedia entry; submit to Mary Niedenfuer by 4 pm 1/20/10

Sponsored by the Department of Modern & Classical Languages, with the assistance of the Office of Education Abroad and the International Student Program Office of CSB/SJU.
Questions? Contact Dr. Karen Erickson at kerickson@csbsju.edu.