Diversity in Study Abroad

Study abroad is not just for the juniors anymore!

The Institute of International Education is assisting students of color increase the diversity in study abroad by providing about other study abroad opportunities.

The IIE is a non-profit organization founded in 1919 and is one of the world's largest international education and training organizations.

The website includes information regarding study abroad experiences that students can do during or after their college years—Fulbright U.S. Student Program, the Peace Corps and numerous other scholarships and fellowships study abroad. The website also features articles centered on breaking barriers to study abroad for students of color.

For more information, see www.iienetwork.org/?p=Diversity

We also encourage you to take advantage of resources in our own Office for Education Abroad, including information specific to multicultural students who are thinking about studying abroad. See <http://www.csbsju.edu/internationaleducation/diversity.htm>.

Important information

First-Years

TODAY!

Stressed about registration? It's coming up fast, so we're here to help you out with all your questions!

We are holding an informational session about registration on Thursday, October 16th from 4:15-5:30 P.M. It will be held in the ASB upper level conference room, in the Academic Services Building (right next to Ardolf on the HAB side).

This session will cover the registration process, finding requirements for majors, minors and the common curriculum, and tracking your progress throughout college.

Snacks and drinks will be provided. We really hope to see all of you there!

Sophomores

It's time to start thinking about studying abroad!

Be sure to check out any of the numerous Study Abroad 101 sessions, which are occurring at least once a week until the end of the semester. You can also check out the Study Abroad Fair on Tuesday, November 6th from 3:30-6:00 PM in Alumnae Hall at CSB.

For more information, you can go to the Office for Education Abroad in the CSB Main Building (room G004) or check out their website at www.csbsju.edu/internationaleducation/. Additionally, Theresa is always more than willing to meet with you as well, so give us a call!

Juniors & Seniors

Theresa, Career Services and the Intercultural Center have a special Diversity issue of Job Choices available for free to all students. Feel free to stop by any of those locations to get it.

The magazine, from the National Association of Colleges and Employers, covers numerous different aspects of life after graduation. Some topics featured in the magazine are; exploring the job market, marketing yourself, and continuing your education. There is an especially helpful article about online profiles and employers.

If you have any other issues or questions, please be sure to schedule an appointment with Theresa.
