

Intentional Living Community Application for the 2009-2010 Academic Year

All intentional living communities that are accepted and approved will be assigned to housing in advance of the room selection process. The campus houses will be given to groups who submit intentional living community applications before being available in pre-selection or in the room selection process.

Proposals for intentional living communities must be returned to Residential Life no later than 4 pm on March 12, 2009.

PART I: Please list the members of your proposed intentional living community.

Name (last name, first name): _____ ID #: _____

Name (last name, first name): _____ ID #: _____

Name (last name, first name): _____ ID #: _____

Name (last name, first name): _____ ID #: _____

PART II: Please respond to each of the following statements and questions regarding your proposed community.

1. Describe the purpose/mission of your living community.
2. Will you have a mentor or guide to help you achieve your mission/purpose (please name a faculty/staff/monastic member who is willing to work with your community in achieving your goals).
3. Identify the goals you would like to accomplish as a living community and how you plan to achieve them.
4. How will living community members benefit from being part of this intentional living community?
5. How will the living community contribute to the residential experience at CSB (how will it affect the campus community beyond your living group)?

PART III: Please indicate where your group would like to be assigned if possible. Please indicate why you would like a given living space and how it will support the goals of the living community. Please note that Luetmer Apartments and Lottie suites will not be assigned to intentional living communities due to the limited number we have to offer of each of these housing options.
