

Women & Leadership in Ireland

Join the Institute for Women's Leadership on an exciting educational and service trip to Ireland to learn about Irish women leaders. As a result of this experience, students will be able to define and describe the impact of women's roles in Irish culture in mythology, religion, peace-keeping, politics and the arts.

- Spring Orientation: Three 2-hour sessions

Pending approval, students will have an opportunity to volunteer with Global Village, a subsidiary of Habitat for Humanity, in Northern Ireland and work at a construction site to build houses for families in need. Students will leave with a deeper understanding of the conflict between Protestants and Catholics, and the role women have played as peacemakers. No previous construction experience necessary.

After volunteering, visit famous attractions in Northern Ireland such as the Giant's Causeway and the Carrick-a-Rede Bridge. Travel into the Republic of Ireland to learn more about Irish women leaders, visiting the legendary grave of Queen Maeve in County Sligo and the home of dramatist Lady Gregory in Galway. See the phenomenal Cliffs of Moher and experience Irish culture!

Dates: May 10th– May 28th, 2010

Cost: Approximately $2,500

Cost includes airfare, transportation, accommodation, and one meal a day.
