THE INDIGENOUS YAMBIRO COMMUNITY, OTAVALO, ECUADOR

The Yambiro Project is a partnership between the College of St. Benedict students and the Women’s Cooperative in Otavalo, Ecuador. This non-profit project enables the women in the indigenous Yambiro community to be economically self-sufficient as they put their embroidering skills to use. This allows the women to provide their families with the necessities every individual deserves such as food and clothing. You can make donations to the Yambiro Project, which allows us to provide the women with more materials to embroider, or donate to the scholarship fund, which allows deserving children in the Yambiro community to afford an education they would not have been able to pursue without financial support. Therefore, we sincerely appreciate your support. Thank you!
