ISLAND LIFE™

ANCIENT GREECE

Aboard the deluxe m.s. Le Boreal

September 5 to 13, 2010

College of Saint Benedict
Dear alumnae, alumni, parents and friends:

We are delighted to sponsor Island Life™ in Ancient Greece. One of the most popular programs in the innovative Village Life™ series, it is a great voyage of discovery into the very cradle of Western civilization. Our exclusive itinerary is ideal for exploring this fabulous region’s ancient history and appreciating its way of life in our own era.

Over 3,000 years ago, the Mycenaeans founded one of the earliest great civilizations on the archipelago stretching from Greece to Turkey across Homer’s “wine-dark” Aegean Sea. Sail the very same waters Ulysses sailed on this seven-night cruise aboard the deluxe small ship M.S. Le Boreal. Launching in 2010, this 120-cabin vessel showcases a new generation of ship design and technology and will also set unprecedented standards in elegance and comfort. Ports of call in Greece will include the islands of Delos, Mykonos, Santorini, Rhodes, and Patmos. Along Turkey’s Aegean coast, you will have the opportunity to visit the site of fabled Troy, as well as Ephesus, the most spectacularly preserved Greco-Roman city in the world.

Among the many special features you will enjoy on this program is our unique Village Forum™, where residents of Patmos will share with us their insights into modern life on an ancient isle. To make your experience even more personal and meaningful, we will offer an introduction to simple Greek phrases and their pronunciation. Even using a few will make your interaction with the Greeks that much more enjoyable! Exclusive lectures by faculty will provide more insight into relevant topics such as Greek mythology and Turkish history. And, we will taste the authentic flavors of Greece’s cuisine during special cooking demonstrations presented by the ship’s master chef and during our daily meals.

The warm camaraderie of fellow alumni, the exceptional value of included accommodations and meals, and the comfort of unpacking only once on the superb M.S. Le Boreal—all fused with the thrilling destination of the Aegean—make for a richly-enticing program. It will sell out quickly, so make your reservation today!

Sincerely,

Kolleen Kellom

ISTANBUL, TURKEY
This legendary metropolis, straddling the Bosphorus Strait, is the only city in the world situated on two continents: Europe and Asia. Its unmatched landmarks include the Topkapi Palace, Hagia Sophia and the Blue Mosque.

TROY (ÇANAKKALE)
Located on a windswept plain near Çanakkale, Troy was immortalized by Homer in The Iliad, a chronicle of the Trojan War of the 13th century B.C., and inspired the tales of ancient Greek mythology at the core of Western literature. Remnants of the Bronze Age citadel and nine cities built over a span of millennia stand on the very site where Troy fell.

EPHESUS (KUŞADASI)
The Greco-Roman city of Ephesus a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the world’s most dazzling architectural treasures. The beautifully restored facade of the Library of Celsus is breathtaking, and the Marble Way leads to an impressive 24,000-seat amphitheater where St. Paul addressed his Epistle to the Ephesians. According to legend, St. John the Apostle traveled with Mary to Ephesus, where he wrote his gospel and later died and was buried. Visitors can see the sixth-century ruins of the Basilica of St. John, constructed above his tomb.

PÁTMOS, GREECE
The small island of Pátmos looms large in the history of Christianity, as does its fortress-like Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Built in 1088, it is still inhabited by monks who preserve it as a pilgrimage site and place of religious study. St. John the Apostle of Ephesus was known to have been exiled to Pátmos for 18 months and very possibly wrote the Book of Revelation here in A.D. 95.

RHODES
The island of Rhodes has been one of the most prosperous and strategic strongholds in the eastern Mediterranean since the dawn of time. Rhodes Town is an extraordinarily well-preserved medieval city, built over a great Hellenistic metropolis. A major Christian outpost during the Crusades, it is the site where the Knights of St. John erected the splendid 11th-century Palace of the Grand Masters.

MYKONOS
According to ancient legend, this island’s craggy hills and cliffs were formed from the petrified bodies of giants killed by Hercules. With its iconic windmills, sugar-white cube houses, golden beaches and azure bays, Mykonos epitomizes life in the Greek Isles.

ATHENS
Birthplace of the democratic ideal and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets from Socrates to Herodotus, Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization. Today, the city’s ancient greatness is encapsulated in the spectacular Acropolis, the political and spiritual center, and the gracefully proportioned Parthenon, a perfectly executed work of Doric architecture dedicated to the goddess Athena in 438 B.C.
