

Scholarship & Creative Work Award Rubric
	Poor	Fair	Good	Very Good	Excellent
Significance of the Project
The proposal provides a thorough, clear, and well-developed description of the project.
The proposal compellingly demonstrates the significance of the project in the applicant's field.
The proposal explains the applicant's need for a course release.
Project Design
The proposal adequately describes and explains the methodology and proposed activities.
The project work plan and timeline are realistic and align with the stated outcomes of the project.
Outcomes
The proposal details achievable outcomes that align with the significance, methodology, and activities.
The proposal demonstrates that the project will have a significant impact on the applicant's professional development
Proposal includes robust plans for public accessibility, dissemination, and/or future uses of the results.
Applicant provides evidence of attempts to secure outside (non-institutional) funding for their scholarly research and/or creative works in the last five years. (Preferential but not required)
Completeness and Clarity
Proposal is complete and written in language accessible to a non-specialist.					