- Do you need an access code or supplemental materials for your course? If not, indicate you want the book only.
- Please submit the titles you are certain of and order the rest later. We can add a book at ANY time in the semester.
- ALL course materials are housed at the St. John’s Bookstore. More Information

Academic Advising

The Hive Flags: You can raise flags at any time and getting this information from you is critical for CSB and SJU to get a true picture of what is happening with a student. You can add comments to a flag that has already been raised and is still active. This allows all of us to know that further attempts have been to assist or reach the student, but the condition still exists. You can clear a flag at any time. If the condition that precipitated the flag no longer exists, we ask that you clear the flag so that we all know it is no longer a concern.

Written instructions for carrying out any of the tasks can be found here:

- Creating Alerts
- Adding Comments/Updates to Flags
- How to Clear Flags and Other Alerts

Video instructions can be found here: Training Videos

As Registration season approaches, we also strongly encourage you to use The Hive for scheduling and documenting your advising interactions!

Advising Development Opportunities: In the coming weeks there are going to be opportunities for you to hone your faculty advising skills. There is no RSVP needed, please join us.

Registrar

Midterm grades are due October 19, 2022. Midterms are a very important advising tool and we ask that instructors enter midterm grades by October 19th. Only new First-year students -- those classified as new entrants this fall are listed. (Transfer students classified as FR are not included.)* Please enter a midterm advisory grade for each student listed using the half-step grading system.

Since the purpose of the mid-term grades is advisory, PLEASE DO NOT USE “S” OR “I” AS MIDTERM GRADES. An exception to this policy would be if the course is only offered for S/U grading, then you may use the grade of “S” or “U”. Midterm grades will be reported to the students via Banner Web Self Service. Midterm grades are available to Faculty Advisors to review for their advisees on Banner Web Self Service or on the students record in The HIVE.

See instructions in the 10/6/22 email sent from the Office of the Registrar for additional information on how to submit your grades. Please call the Registrar’s Office if you have questions or experience problems entering midterm grades.

Research and Grants Office

A shout out to Erin Donohue in Psychology who recently published an article in Family and Consumer Sciences Research Journal, “Parent–Child Recurring Conflict: A Mediator between Parental Anger Management and Adolescent Behavior.” This longitudinal study examined whether parent–child recurring conflict mediated the association between parental anger management and adolescent deviant and problem-solving behaviors in 415 rural families, concluding that adolescent problem-solving behaviors may be promoted by teaching families strategies for reducing parent–child recurring conflict and fostering parental anger management. The accepted version of the manuscript is also available on Digital Commons at https://digitalcommons.csbsju.edu/psychology_pubs/136/. Congrats, Erin!

Center for Teaching and Learning

CSB and SJU HHMI Inclusive Excellence grant and the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) Series: As we wrap up our fall faculty development series through the CSB/SJU HHMI Inclusive Excellence grant and the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL), we have one more exciting opportunity to share!

Dates for Fall Inclusive Teaching Series (see attached flyers)

Thurs., Oct. 13th at 4:30pm: Dr. Roberts will offer a follow-up virtual workshop for faculty on "Inclusive Pedagogy for STEM Excellence." This hands-on, interactive workshop allows faculty to assess their current strengths as educators in the inclusive classroom and learn concrete, actionable pedagogical strategies. A workbook of resources will be given to all participants for further study and personal development. Registration: https://www.csbsju.edu/forms/KIR4SR1ODE

Oct. 12th, Oct. 26th, & Nov. 16th at 4:30-6:30pm in Peter Engel 269 (see attached flyer): Dr. Rama K. Hart from the University of Saint Thomas, Opus College of Business to campus to offer a 3-part Inclusive Teaching Series on Growing Equity and Valuing Difference. Opening comments will be provided by Dr. Carol Bruess, Professor Emerita at the University of Saint Thomas. This series is especially well suited for those of you who have been craving opportunities for extended engagement around important issues of inclusion, beyond one-off workshops and trainings.

This series is designed to improve the capacity of faculty and staff to act inclusively. This is an opportunity to develop individual capacity to practice inclusive behaviors in day-to-day work, to grow mindsets in our ability to embrace difference, to foster authentic self-expression, and to begin to make changes in the way we develop practices that foster inclusion in the classroom and on campus.

- Module 1 on Oct 12th will focus on Individual Awareness,
- Module 2 on Oct 26th will address Interpersonal Relationships and Communication, and
- Module 3 on November 16 will highlight Systemic Change.

This series is open to all instructors, while being especially geared towards faculty in business and affiliated fields (e.g., economics, accounting, communication, sociology, psychology, etc). Stipends will be available for engagement across the three sessions. Register here: https://www.csbsju.edu/forms/BJHEJTBTVS We hope that you will join us for this exciting extended opportunity!

If you have questions, contact The CSB/SJU HHMI Team and the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL): Amanda Macht Jantzer, Madeleine Israelson, KyhI Lyndgaard, Deborah Pembleton, Annette Raigoza, and Laura Taylor (CTL Director)
Center for Teaching and Learning Spring 2023 Faculty Fellows Program: see attached and the 10/3 email sent from Academic Affairs for more information

Overview: The Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) Spring 2023 Faculty Fellows Program has two primary purposes: 1) to increase the capacity of the CTL to carry out existing and expanded activities during the CTL director’s sabbatical leave, and 2) to provide Fellows with professional development and leadership opportunities at the intersection of their interests/expertise and the CTL’s strategic priorities during the first year of its rollout: new faculty programing, inclusive pedagogies, and innovative faculty development opportunities to promote effective teaching practices and meaningful learning for our students.

Two CTL Fellows will be selected for Spring 2023. Depending on the individual circumstances, this assignment may result in either a 1/6 overload or could replace a previously planned assignment for the term. The Dean of the Faculty and Department Chair would be consulted to determine the structure of the assignment. Application submission deadline: Mon, Oct. 17th at 3:00 pm.

Dr. Benjamin Narvaez discusses Chinese Indentured Labor
The LLAS Fall 2022 Series presents Dr. Benjamin Narvaez on Tuesday, October 18 at 7:00 PM. Join us in Quad 264 as he presents "Chinese Indentured Labor during the Era of Abolition: Cuba, Peru, and the United States during the Mid-Nineteenth Century." Dr. Narvaez explores how and why Cuba and Peru developed similar systems of Chinese indentured labor—ones in which supposedly free individuals labored like slaves—while an effort to copy this system failed in the U.S. South. All are welcome! More Information

The 16th Annual Eugene McCarthy Center Lecture October 20 7:00 p.m. SBH (SJU) General Paul Nakasone (SJU, 1986) will present the 2022 Eugene J. Winona LaDuke is a Native American activist, economist, and author. An Anishinaabekwe (Ojibwe) enrolled member of the Mississippi Band Anishinaabeg, she has devoted her life to advocating for Indigenous control of their homelands, natural resources, and cultural practices.

These events are sponsored by the Environmental Studies Department with support from the Mary Evelyn Tucker and John Grim ’68 Fund. We also thank the following CSB and SJU departments for their contributions: Jay Phillips Center; McCarthy Center, Initiative for Native Nation Relations; Sociology/Anthropology; CSB Campus Ministry; SJU Campus Ministry.

Koch Chair Lecture – Racial Justice & LGBTQ Inclusion: The Threat of White Christian Nationalism presented by Dr. Bryan Massingale Tuesday, October 25, 2022 in Gorecki 204 (CSB) 7 p.m. https://www.csbsju.edu/academics/lecture-series/koch-chair In Catholic discourse, concern for racial justice and LGBTQ inclusion are often treated in isolation. This presentation offers an intersectional approach to racial and sexual justice by exploring the challenge that white Christian nationalism poses to both our democracy and to vulnerable populations. It argues that "seeing and loving the world as God does" requires an uncompromising rejection of the idolatry of Christian nationalism and creating a society where the dignity of all is respected. For more information, contact Jennifer Beste.

Jay Phillips Center for Interfaith Learning lecture: “Christian Nationalism in America: Its History and Resurgence” presented by Charles R. Gallagher, Ph.D., at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 2, in Quad 263. A professor of history a Boston College and the author of Nazis of Copley Square: The Forgotten History of the Christian Front (Harvard University Press), Gallagher will summarize the history of explicitly Christian nationalist groups in America and discuss their influence on today’s far-right movements.

Diane Wilson: Writer in Residence from November 7th-8th Tuesday, 11/8: Public Reading and Conversation with the author at 7pm in Upper Gorecki *IC designations for this event: ARTE and Race/Ethnicity *Wilson's visit is in partnership with the Multi-Cultural Center's week-long Festival of Cultures Wilson's books include Beloved Child: A Dakota Way of Life (2011) and the memoir, Spirit Car: Journey to a Dakota Past (2006). Her essays have appeared in many anthologies, including: Kinship: Belonging in a World of Relations (2021); We Are Meant to Rise (2021); and A Good Time for the Truth (2016). Wilson is the former Executive Director for the Native American Food Sovereignty Alliance and also a Mdewakanton descendent, enrolled on the Rosebud Reservation.
