Pandemic Planning Committee

The PPC shared the following changes to our temporary masking requirement (see email dated 2/14/22):

Beginning February 20 through March 18

Masks are required:
- In classrooms.
- While attending or participating in our large performance venues (CSB Escher Auditorium, CSB Colman Theater, CSB Gorecki Family Theater, and SJU Humphrey Theater) and attending indoor athletics events.
- On buses, public transportation, and in counseling and health services facilities due to federal regulation.
- When directed to mask by a CSB/SJU COVID Coordinator following an exposure or COVID-positive test result.

Masks are strongly encouraged, but not required:
- In any other indoor spaces.
- Fully vaccinated and boosted presenters can choose to unmask during presentations if they are able to socially distance.

Beginning March 19

- Masks are optional for all individuals, except on buses, public transportation, and in counseling and health services facilities due to federal regulation.
- Indoor performance venues may require masks based on most current performance industry guidelines.
• Spectators at indoor athletic events may be required to mask based on the most current MIAC and/or NCAA guidelines.
• Faculty or staff can still choose to require masking in their individual classrooms or offices.

Please keep in mind that the situation around COVID-19 has been known to change rapidly. Our Pandemic Planning Committee will continue to meet regularly to review the situation and make adjustments if needed.

Honors Scholars

Call for Course Proposals for Honors Scholars for Community and Collaborative Leadership
Deadline: Tuesday March 15, 2022
Notification: Friday April 7, 2022
May Workshop for all Honors Scholars instructors: Wednesday May 18, 2022

We are accepting applications for all five courses in the Honors Scholars curriculum. If your course is adopted, you automatically become an “Honors Faculty Fellow” and participate in the on-going shaping of the program. It is a three-year commitment during which each fellow will teach their Honors Scholars course at least twice, evaluate prospective students’ applications to the Honors Scholars program at least once, participate in program assessment, attend at least one Honors co-curricular event per semester, and participate in a yearly May workshop. It is a significant service commitment; the Honors Director will write a letter for the tenure and promotion files of Honors Fellows to recognize their service.

Before preparing your proposal, please consult the description of the Honors Scholars Program and curriculum on our website. Note: All Honors Scholars courses fulfill Integrations Curriculum requirements. (You do not need to propose your course to the GECC at this time; adopted courses will be required to do so before there are scheduled.). Please contact Beth Wengler, ewengler@csbsju.edu, Honors Scholars Director, or Emily Esch, eesch@csbsju.edu, Honors Scholars Associate Director with questions. Please submit course proposals here: https://www.csbsju.edu/forms/92SANU9OIX

FYX

The First Year Experience (FYX) is pleased to announce the application to teach the College Success Course (INTG 105) this coming Fall 2022 is now open! F22 College Success Course Instructor Application Form (see 2/13/22 email from Kari Shane Davis Zimmerman for more information)

The College Success Course, formerly designated INTG 105 as part of CSB/SJU’s Integrations Curriculum, is a major component of the First Year Experience (FYX). The purpose of this 1-credit course is to help entering first year students make a successful transition to CSB/SJU.
Content intentionally builds upon lessons introduced during the Beginning the Journey online orientation series launched in late June prior to a student’s formal arrival on campus. The course aims to: foster a sense of belonging, promote engagement in curricular and co-curricular campus life, articulate expectations of students, and help students continue to clarify their purpose, meaning and direction in their professional and personal lives.

INTG 105 meets 1x per week for 55 minutes throughout the fall semester. Each section of the course is assigned a peer mentor (with either junior or senior standing) who has been vetted and trained to provide personalized guidance and mentorship to students in her/his class section prior to the start of the course. Administration seeks to cap course sections to 24 students for AY 2022-2023.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue through mid-March. Instructors can expect to be notified no later than March 15th. If you have any questions, please reach out to Kari-Shane Davis Zimmerman (KDavis@csbsju.edu).
