1.0 PREAMBLE

As members of the Saint Ben’s Senate, it is our duty to serve the students at the College of Saint Benedict and foster a Benedictine community designed to provide students with a well-rounded liberal arts education. In efforts to uphold the mission of the College of Saint Benedict and meet the needs of the student body, the Saint Ben’s Senate follows guidelines outlined below in this constitution.

2.0 NAME

The name of this organization shall be called the College of Saint Benedict Senate, hereafter referred to in this document as the Saint Ben’s Senate.

3.0 PURPOSE

Provide an autonomous form of government, representing all students at the College of Saint Benedict. Provide an impartial space for students to express views and opinions.

3.1 Mission Statement

The Saint Ben’s Senate will maintain viable and inclusive relationship with the student body and members from administration, faculty and staff at the College of Saint Benedict. Furthermore, as leaders on campus, we seek to preserve a strong relationship with the Saint John’s Senate and make ethical decisions predicated on Benedictine values instituted by the College of Saint Benedict.

4.0 MEMBERSHIP & EXPECTATIONS

4.1 Membership

The Saint Ben’s Senate shall consist of a President, Vice President, Trustee, Treasurer, Club Allocations Chair, Public Relations Representative, Academic Affairs Representative, Women’s Initiative Representative, Student Activities Representative, Cultural Affairs Representative, Underclass Representative, Upper Class Representative, Sustainability Representative, First Year Representative and three (3) Club Auditors. In addition, the Saint Ben’s Senate will have two appointed, non-voting members referred to as the Executive Assistant and Public Relations Assistant. Each member may only function in one capacity exemplified in the by-laws section of the constitution. The Executive Assistant and Public Relations Assistant will be selected by interviews conducted by representatives from the Executive Board.
4.2 Meetings

All Saint Ben’s Senate meetings and committee meetings are open to all members from the CSB and SJU communities. The Saint Ben’s Senate meetings are conducted every Wednesday evening of the week at 7:30 p.m. in Gorecki 120, unless otherwise specified.

4.3 Executive Boards and Committees

Additional committees of the Saint Ben’s Senate include, but are not limited to, the Executive Board and Co-Funding Board, whose duties, structure and guidelines are outlined in the by-laws. Executive Board and Co-Funding Board decisions may be overturned by a 60% (3/5th) vote from the Saint Ben’s Senate. All senators have the power to establish committees or task forces at any time, and in addition, all senators must participate in at least one committee and one task force during the semester, unless otherwise specified by the Executive Board.

4.4 Amendments

The Saint Ben’s Senate constitution may be amended by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Saint Ben’s Senate and a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting student body. The by-laws may be amended by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Saint Ben’s Senate. Standing rules may be amended by a majority vote of the Saint Ben’s Senate.

5.0 BY-LAWS

5.3.4 The Co-Funding Board By-Laws

The Co-Funding Board (CFB) is comprised of five CSB senators and five SJU senators, elected by the student body. The SJU senators will be the Chair, Treasurer and three Club Auditors from the Activities and Allocations Board (AAB). The CSB senators will be the Club Allocations Chair, Treasurer, and all three Club Auditors. (For specific information about membership of the CFB, please refer to Section 2 in the CFB Guidelines. For specific duties, please refer to the respective student senate constitution.) The CFB is chaired jointly by the CSB Club Allocations Chair and the SJU AAB Chair and will meet each Monday from 4:30 P.M. through 6:30 P.M.

I. Purpose

A. The CFB is charged with allocating a portion of the student activity fee to institutionally recognized clubs in order to fund events that add to the communities at CSB/SJU.

B. The percent of the student activity designated to the CFB will reflect the percent of the student body each senate represents.

C. The CFB is responsible for auditing the spending of each jointly funded group.

D. Clubs that are comprised of entirely CSB students or SJU students will be referred to their respective Senate.

E. Fiscal stewardship of recognized student clubs is ultimately the responsibility of Co-Funding board oversight and management.

II. Membership

A. The CFB will be composed of the AAB Chair (SJU), Club Allocations Chair (CSB), Saint Ben’s Senate Treasurers, Saint John’s Senate Treasurer, and three (3) Club Auditors from each senate.

B. Members of the Co-Funding Board shall serve until the end of the academic year.

C. Upon election to the CFB, all members must disclose clubs in which they are actively involved, to the co-chairs.

D. Failure to disclose involvement in a club may result in a referral to that Senator’s respective board of ethics.

E. All members of the Co-Funding Board are required to attend CFB training seminars.

III. CFB Meetings

A. Shall be held every Monday at 4:30 PM to 6:30 PM.

B. All Co-Funding Board meetings are mandatory. In the event of repeated tardiness or three (3) unexcused absences, senators may be subject to disciplinary procedures determined by the co-chairs.
C. Quorum is defined as having six (6) CFB members present.

D. All members of the CFB, including the co-chairs, are eligible to vote.

E. Spontaneous requests require a majority vote.

F. The Chairman and Chairwoman can call for an email vote as deemed necessary to review a spontaneous request outside of a regular CFB meeting, given that the request is not due to poor planning or negligence by the club, but to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances such as advancing to a tournament. Such requests do not need to be submitted by the 5:00 P.M. on the Friday before the next CFB meeting. Six (6) email responses are needed for quorum and require a majority vote.

IV. Funding Procedure

A. Initial Funding

1. Each fully registered, institutionally recognized club will be designated a $500.00 operational budget for each fiscal year. Requirements to be considered an institutionally recognized club are outlined in section VI.

2. The CFB will appropriate to newly recognized clubs an operational budget that will be prorated from $500.00 based on days remaining in the school year.

3. Clubs which fail to complete the yearly club registration process by the deadline will be reduced by $100 from their operational budget once registration is completed.

4. Operational expenses are defined as those expenses incurred in order for the club to function. Examples include, but are not limited to:
   a. Club only food events -- One event per semester up to $75.00
   b. Advertising expenses -- A maximum of $50.00 per semester.
   c. Prizes -- A maximum of $150.00 per semester awarded to students only.
   d. Involvement Fair Expenses -- A maximum of $50.00.
   e. Family Weekend Carnival -- A maximum of $50.00

5. Any expenses defined as operational in the preceding paragraph are not eligible for spontaneous funding.

6. Unused funds will be reabsorbed by the CFB at the end of the fiscal year.

7. Clubs must submit the appropriate expense approval form before being eligible to spend any of their $500 operational budget.

8. The club’s auditor will approve the request within 48 hours while classes are in session.
Clubs may be subject to forfeiture of operational funds. Those funds would be reabsorbed by the CFB if they have spent less than 40% of their operational funds at the end of the fall semester. CFB may reabsorb up to 50%.

B. Spontaneous Funding

1. Any recognized club who intends to put on a successful event is eligible to receive spontaneous funding through the CFB.

2. Spontaneous requests are for individual events, defined as:
   a. A single occurrence such as a dance, speaker, or publication.
   b. A recurring series of similar events such as Praise in the Pub or a competitive season
   c. A set of multiple events around one theme such as educational awareness weeks

3. Clubs may have a maximum of three outstanding, uncompleted spontaneous requests at any one time.

4. When applying for spontaneous funding clubs must include a detailed breakdown of expenses as outlined in the various funding request forms.

5. Spontaneous requests must follow the funding guidelines outlined in section 5, Funding Guidelines.

6. Spontaneous requests must be received by 5:00 on the Friday before the next CFB meeting in order to be heard. No exceptions will be made unless outlined by those in section III. In the event that there are extraordinary changes to a club’s request prior to the CFB meeting, the club’s request may be tabled until a later date.

7. Once an event is approved, the responsible club auditor will notify his/her club of the approval within 24 hours.

8. Spontaneous funds must be used for the specific allocated purpose. Spontaneous funds will be reabsorbed if no longer needed for the allocated purpose, or at the completion of the allocated purpose excess funding remains.

V. Funding Guidelines

A. In General

1. The CFB may:
   a. Only consider proposals if the activity/event is open to all students of both campuses.
b. Only consider proposals presented by recognized clubs.

c. Fund an event that is open to all students where charitable donations are raised.

d. Fund a flat percentage of the student activity fee to any group with the majority approval of the CFB, plus two-thirds (2/3) approval of both the Saint Ben’s Senate and Saint John’s Senate.

e. Fund a club initiative that is co-sponsored by the SBS and SJS

2. The CFB may not:

a. Fund more than $8,000.00 per club/year.

b. Fund any expenses that fall within the SBS/SJS funding guidelines or are already funded by the SBS/SJS.

c. Fund institutional programs, departments, or departmental organizations.

d. Fund any club with more than $8,000 in its generated account. The CFB will hear the request to determine when the balance falls below $8,000 and spontaneous funding can be granted.

e. Allow funds, allocated or generated, to be used to pay for alcoholic beverages (including bartending services that allow for alcohol to be served), tobacco-based products or ammunition.

f. Allow clubs’ funds, allocated or generated, to be kept in off-campus account, or in the form of cash.

g. Fund donations to charitable causes.

h. Fund activities/events that are only open to students from one campus. They may be directed to the respective student senate.

B. In the Case of Travel Expenses:

   1. The CFB may only fund:

   a. Up to 60% of the cost to rend a university van/car for the use of a student group.

   b. Up to 60% of the cost of fueling the university van/car for the duration of the trip.

   c. Up to 60% of the cost of other modes of transportation in situation where it is deemed cost-effective by the board.
d. Up to 60% of the cost of lodging/hotel fees for club affiliated attendees of the approved conventions/conferences.

e. Up to 60% of the cost of the fuel for a non-university van/car.

f. Approved travel and lodging expenses not to exceed $8,000 per year.

g. In the event of a weather-related emergency or natural disaster, the CFB may fund 100% of unanticipated travel costs even if that causes total travel costs to exceed the $8,000 cap.

C. In the case of Travel Expenses incurred during international travel:

1. The CFB may only fund:
   a. Up to $300 per person toward the cost of lodging and travel.
   b. Approved travel and lodging expenses not to exceed $6,400 per year.
   c. In the event of a weather-related emergency or a natural disaster, the CFB may fund 100% of unanticipated travel costs even if that causes total travel costs to exceed the $6,400 cap.
   d. If the funding you are requesting is for international travel (travel outside of the USA), you must comply additional policies and procedures before you can receive institutional funding: http://www.csbsju.edu/global/find-education-abroad-program/other-opportunities-abroad/international-travelregistration

   e. CSBSJU does not guarantee funding or reimbursement for advisors’ travel costs even though they are required by institutional policy for international trips.

D. In the Case of Registration Fees:

1. The CFB may only fund:
   a. Conventions/conferences to which a registration form has been presented.
   b. Registration fees for approved conventions/conferences in the amount of up to $300.00 per person, not to exceed $1,800.00 per event.
   c. Club dues to an organization.

2. The CFB may not fund:
   a. The cost of food for any participant of an approved convention or conference, unless included in the cost of the conference or event.
   b. Individual membership fees.

E. In the Case of Stipends:
1. The CFB will not allow the funding of stipends/honorariums to students of a club/organization out of the student activity fee. If groups desire to fund monies for these purposes, clubs must:

a. Use their generated funds.

b. Gain the approval of the club auditor assigned to that group.

c. Not exceed the appropriate amount as outlined by the Offices of Student Accounts, Financial Aid, and the Student Development.

d. Report amounts and recipients of stipends to the Offices of Student Accounts, Financial Aid, and Student Development.

F. In the case of Food/Refreshments at Open Functions:

1. The CFB may fund:

a. The reasonable cost of food/refreshments for students only.

b. The reasonable cost of food/refreshments for one meeting per semester of an academic year, as deemed by the board, in accordance to the policies of the CFB.

c. The reasonable cost of food/refreshments at group sponsored events (such as speakers, etc.) on a case-by-case basis, in accordance with the policies of the CFB.

d. Requests must comply with the rules set by the culinary/catering department of the campus on which the event is held.

2. The CFB may not fund:

a. Food/refreshments for outside guests, faculty, staff, or non-student participant, except for in case of paid service providers for the event at a reasonable cost.

G. In the Case of Clothing, Uniforms, and Equipment:

1. The CFB may fund:

a. Cost of uniforms, clothing, or equipment for the use of a club, as long as these items remain in the possession of the club for further years’ use.

b. Joint Club Sports that need funding beyond their initial allocation for capital expenses or post-season competition may seek funding.

c. Student Activities must approve the clothing or uniform design for institutionally recognized clubs. St. John’s Club Sports Commissioner must approve the clothing or uniform design for Joint Club Sports.

2. The CFB may not fund:
a. Cost of personal clothing, uniforms, and equipment.

H. In the Case of Loans:

1. The CFB may fund:
   a. Loans to clubs who wish to produce and sell clothing, in order to increase generated funds or club awareness. In this case, Student Activities must approve the clothing design and any loaned monies must be fully repaid by the end of the semester of the allocation.
   b. Funds made as a result of money loaned by the CFB may be placed in the clubs generated account.

2. The CFB may not fund:
   a. Loans to clubs submitted after the start of Fall or Spring Semester, D Mod. Clubs may reapply after the start of the following semester.

I. In the Case of Speaker Fees:

1. The CFB may fund:
   a. Up to $8,000 per event.

J. In the Case of Competitions:

1. The CFB may fund:
   a. Registration to competition.
   b. Up to 60% of travel and lodging to and from the competition.

K. In the Case of Decorations:

1. The CFB may fund:
   a. Up to $500.00 per event
   b. Items with the potential to be reused by the club in the future.

VI. General Application

A. Institutionally Recognized Clubs

1. Institutionally, the Department of Student Activities and the Joint Club Board define recognized clubs as those clubs who have successfully completed the new student club recognition process.

2. Only groups adhering to all application processes and timeline policies will be considered for funding.

3. Each institutionally recognized club will be appointed an auditor and must have a recognized treasurer whose name has been reported to the Department of Student Activities. The auditor and the recognized group’s treasurer are the only authorized signatories of the group’s account.

4. Clubs are required to follow all CSB/SJU Business Office policies and procedures.

5. Clubs are granted only one operational and only one generated account.

6. Any club wishing to fundraise outside of the immediate university or college must contact Institutional Advancement.

VII. The Record

A. The CFB acknowledges that the Record is a non-event producing club with high operational costs that are consistent with their mission.

B. Therefore:

1. The student newspaper, The Record, will be allocated an operational budget.

2. The Record must submit an operational budget to be reviewed by the CFB prior to the publication of the first weekly paper of the academic year.

3. Any expenses above the operational budget will be treated as a spontaneous request to be heard by the CFB.

4. The CFB reserves the right to reevaluate The Record’s operational budget on a yearly basis.

VIII. Alleged Violations of CFB Policies and/or Guidelines

A. Any club found in violation of any CFB policy, guideline, or ruling will be subject to the following procedure:

1. Group officers/representatives will be called upon to explain the violation.

2. All club accounts, both allocated and generated, will be frozen until the problem is solved.
3. Any misused funds, or funds used without the knowledge and approval of the CFB, will be repaid and reabsorbed.

4. The group may be referred to the Joint Club Board/Department of Student Activities.

B. The following procedures will be used when a group incurs an outstanding debt:

1. All debt issues will be subject to CFB review. However, if a debt greater than $1000.00 or a gross misuse of funds occurs, the CFB may withhold funding for up to one year.

2. The accounts in question will be frozen until the problem is solved.

3. The club officers/representatives will be called upon to explain the debt and create a plan of debt forgiveness (which may include plans for fundraising).

4. If a problem is still unresolved, the groups could have all funding suspended for an amount of time deemed appropriate by the board.

5. The group may be referred to the Joint Club Board/Department of Student Activities.

6. Any other extenuating circumstances will be referred to the institution for institutional conduct analysis and possible legal action against responsible parties.

IX. Appeals

A. Appellate Board

1. The appeal board shall consist of the following members:

   a. CFB Co-Chairs

   b. Joint Club Board Co-Chairs

   c. Saint Ben’s Senate and Saint John’s Senate Presidents

   d. Saint Ben’s Senate and Saint John’s Senate Vice Presidents

   e. The auditor of the appealing club

2. Any decision of the CFB may be appealed, in writing, to each full Senate within a time period not to exceed two successive meetings of each respective Senate.

B. The motion to appeal the CFB decision must be approved by a majority vote of the Appellate Board.

X. Executive Assistant
A. An Executive Assistant shall be selected by the CFB Co-Chairs immediately following the general election.

B. Duties and responsibilities:

   1. To maintain attendance at all CFB meetings.
   2. To serve as secretary for all CFB meetings.
   3. To distribute detailed minutes to all CFB members, advisor, and Financial Operational Assistant for all meetings by the Wednesday following that meeting.
   4. The executive assistant to the CFB shall receive a stipend of $200.00 per semester.

* The CFB reserves the right to change this document [Article VII. Joint Funding Policy] with a majority vote of the board, and adoption by the respective senates according to their constitutions. The CFB also reserves the right to make special considerations for proposals on a case-by-case basis as deemed necessary by the board. *

5.3.5 Standing Rules of the Co-Funding Board

I. Rules

A. Senators are to address each other as “senator” during meetings in order to maintain a level of professionalism. Members of the Executive Board shall be referred to by their title.

B. Senators must be seated by 4:30 p.m. when the Chairman & Chairwoman call the meeting to order. In the event of an unavoidable absence, the Chairman and Chairwoman must be informed ahead of time.

C. All agenda items should be sent to the Co-Chairs and CFB account by Sunday at 5 p.m. to be on Monday’s agenda.

D. Unapproved minutes will be emailed to all senators by Wednesday morning from the Executive Assistant for review.

E. The Chairman and Chairwoman of the Co-Funding Board are able to end a meeting at any point using their discretion.

F. Can move into Roberts Rules at the discretion of the chairs.

G. If violation of the rules occurs, the senator in question can lose speaking rights.

5.4 Joint Club Board (JCB)
I. Purpose

A. To grant institutional recognition to clubs.

B. To represent clubs to the administration.

C. To establish a system for club constitution review, which emphasizes club structure in order to prevent confusion concerning the function of the club.

D. To see that all approved clubs/organizations abide by the policies and rules of the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University.

II. Membership

A. Co-Chairs

1. The Saint Ben’s Senate Co-Chair shall be the Student Activities Representative.
2. The Saint John’s Senate Co-Chair shall be the Student Activities Representative.
3. The Co-Chairs shall preside over all meetings of the JCB.
4. The Co-Chairs shall sign approvals of approved joint clubs.
5. The Co-Chairs shall delegate responsibility to its members for club recognition and members shall serve as a hearing board for club violations of JCB and club policy issues.

B. Board Members

1. An auditor from each Senate.
2. One CSB student and one SJU student representing Student Activities.
3. One SJU student and one CSB student who are current club officers.

III. General Procedures

A. The JCB shall meet bi-weekly or as deemed necessary by the JCB Co-Chairs, with adequate notice given about the meeting times.

B. Each Co-Chair will preside over alternate meetings.

C. The JCB Co-Chairs reserve the right to together make an executive decision if, after attempting to reach its membership, time constraints will not allow for a JCB meeting.

D. Votes of the JCB will require a majority vote after a quorum, defined as two-thirds (2/3) of its membership.

E. Attendance is mandatory for all Joint Club Board meetings, unless excused.

F. After the second unexcused absence from the meeting, the member will be removed, and an alternate will be selected by the remaining membership.
G. All clubs recognized by the JCB, the College of Saint Benedict, and St. John’s University will remain recognized clubs unless taken under review by the JCB, Saint John’s Senate, Saint Ben’s Senate, or the administration of CSB/SJU for being in violation of any guideline, rule, or regulation.

IV. Joint Club Approval Process

A. Proposed clubs must have a roster of at least ten members. In order to be a joint club, clubs are required to have the goal of including five SJU student members and five CSB student members.

B. Single institution clubs must have a roster of at least ten students from that institution.

C. Proposed clubs must submit a written constitution, advisor contract, and recognition form to the JCB advisor.

D. After receiving a proposed club’s packet, the JCB will review the club’s constitution, consider whether the club will be consistent with the mission statements of both CSB and SJU, and evaluate the proposed club’s purpose, necessity, and role in the CSB/SJU campus communities.

E. The JCB will then vote to approve or deny the club. If approved, the packet will be submitted to the Associate Director of Finance and Operations for Student Activities and Leadership Development.

F. Final approval of a club rests with the Associate Director of Finance and Operations for Student Activities and Leadership Development, who is responsible for notifying the JCB.

G. If not approved, the JCB will contact the club with the reasons and a list of suggested changes.

H. The JCB reserves the right to call a meeting with a proposed club’s contacts and officers at any point during the approval process.

V. Club Requirements

A. Faith Based Club Approval
   Does the mission of the club revolve around faith, religious beliefs or spirituality? If the answer is yes, the proposed club’s constitution and recognition form will first be reviewed by the directors of CSB and SJU Campus Ministry.

   If the constitution and recognition form are approved by the directors of CSB and SJU Campus Ministry, the club moves on to the General Club Approval Process.

B. Club Sports Approval
   Will the potential club... Compete
Require members to pay dues
Hold tryouts
Involve physical activity
Utilize athletic facilities
Require members to be in good academic standing
Have an assigned advisor who is affiliated with the one of the athletic departments
Engage in high risk activities or activities that include a higher chance of impact or injury
Travel regularly
Maintains association with an outside organization

If a club meets more than four of the above criteria, it will be reviewed as a club sport. The CSB/SJU club sports commissioners will review the proposed club’s constitution and recognition form to determine if...

Funding is available
Facilities are available
The club will serve as an admission’s incentive
There is a sustainable interest in the club the club’s activities, mission and goals are consistent with the Benedictine Values

If the answer to these questions is yes, the constitution and recognition form will be reviewed by the Joint Club Board. The Board will determine if...

The club is managed by CSB/SJU students (A club may have an affiliation with an on-campus department or an off-campus organization)
The club’s management procedures reflect a concern for the interests of all potential student members
The potential club will maintain its financial accounts at CSB/SJU and comply with institutional financial policies
The club’s funding will be used primarily for events for CSB/SJU students
The club has a fair and balanced leadership structure
The club’s management procedures reflect a concern for the interest of all potential student members
The club has a process for proposing operational changes
The club registration process must be completed yearly.
The club constitution includes both an anti-discrimination and anti-hazing clause

1. If there is a satisfactory answer to all these questions the constitution will be approved by the Joint Club Board and the club will receive recognition.
2. If not approved, the JCB will contact the club with the reasons and a list of suggested changes.

C. General Club Approval
The General Club Approval process will consist of the Joint Club Board reviewing the club’s constitution and recognition form to determine if the following are true:
The club is beneficial to the CSB/SJU student body in a way that is worthy of the commitment of institutional resources.

The club is inclusive and welcoming to all CSB/SJU students (no mandatory dues and no grade point requirements).

Joint clubs must be mutually inclusive in title, apparel, and publicity.

The club’s honorarium policy must be included in its constitution.

Clubs must comply with all CSB/SJU joint and separate institutional policies listed in the J-Book and the Bennie Book.

The club constitution includes both an anti-hazing and anti-discrimination clause.

Membership is open to all CSB/SJU undergraduate students exclusively.

The club will sponsor events that are inclusive and welcoming to all CSB/SJU students (no try outs to participate).

The club is unique and does not duplicate the efforts of an existing club at CSB/SJU.

The proposed club is sustainable over time.

Clubs must maintain a minimum of 10 members. Club must have a goal of maintaining a minimum of five members from each institution in order to remain a joint club.

The club is managed by CSB/SJU students (A club may have an affiliation with an on-campus department or an off-campus organization.)

The club has an advisor (CSB/SJU faculty or staff member) of their choosing.

The club’s election and management procedures reflect a concern for the interests of all potential student members.

The club will maintain its financial accounts at CSB/SJU and comply with institutional financial policies?

The club’s funding be used primarily for events for CSB/SJU students.

The club has a well-defined policy for elections and dismissal of members and a fair and balanced leadership structure.

A club have a process for proposing operational change.

The purpose of a club must be consistent with the two institutions’ mission statements and the Benedictine Values.

Representation of each club is required at the club fair and all mandatory meetings set by the JCB and/or Student Activities and Leadership Development.

The club registration process must be completed yearly.

1. If the club meets these conditions the club will be approved by the Joint Club Board.
2. If not approved, the JCB will contact the club with the reasons and a list of suggested changes.

VI. Sanctions

A. If the registration process is not completed on time or if a club violates and JCB, Saint Ben’s Senate, or Saint John’s Senate guideline or institutional rule or regulation, the JCB reserves the right to take any of the following action:

1. Suspension of club status and privileges including but not limited to loss of access to a club’s financial account(s), suspension of a club’s e-mail account and posting privileges, and loss of meeting areas and access to storage space.
2. Directly overseeing club operations.
3. Other means deemed necessary.

B. The type and duration of sanctions will fit the violation. The JCB reserves the right to disband a club for major infraction.

VII. Club Expiration

A. All clubs failing to register for three-consecutive academic years will be completely disabled and no longer deemed a club by the Joint Club Board.

VIII. Student Club Mass E-Mail Policy

A. Student clubs and organizations can send one email out every 24 hours.

B. Student clubs and organizations are able to send one (1) cancellation or correction e-mail for an event for that day.

1. A correction e-mail must be a change in date, time, location, or contact information.

C. The size of mass e-mails sent from student clubs and organizations will be limited to 750 Kilobytes per-email.

D. The Joint Club Board will monitor and enforce these policies.

E. If a student club or organization does not comply, in accordance with the JCB grading system, five points will be deducted from the total points for the semester for each violation and the following action will occur:

1. First Offense: The student club or organization will receive a written warning from the JCB.

2. Second and following Offenses: The student club or organization will not receive access to their club e-mail account for the duration of two (2) weeks per policy violation. Notification of violation will be provided by the JCB to the Office of Student Activities and to the club or organization.

F. The JCB co-chairs will review all policy violation at the next JCB meeting.

G. The JCB will organize a workshop in some form to educate club leaders on changes in mass e-mail policy, respectful use of e-mail, and alternative advertising methods.

H. A joint effort on behalf of both senates is needed to educate students to complain about email to the source of those e-mails and/or the JCB, not IT Services.

5.5 Joint Events Council (JEC)
I. History

In Fall 2010, the Saint Ben’s Senate, voted to recognize JEC as the primary campus programming board, thereby removing that body from the jurisdiction of the Saint Ben’s Senate Activities is charged with the authority to oversee the JEC Funding.

II. Reserved Powers

   A. After the 5% reserved by the Business Offices, the Joint Events Council (JEC) automatically receives 26% of the remaining Student Activity fee. Any change to the percentage allocation requires approval of the CSB Dean of Students.

III. Relationship

   A. The JEC and the Saint Ben’s Senate are peer organizations, each with a distinct purpose but a shared goal to enhance the student experience.

   B. Both organizations are invested in the success of the other as evidenced by open communication, collaboration when appropriate, and support of each other’s initiatives.

   C. The JEC shall present to the Saint Ben’s Senate once per semester in response to an invitation delivered within a reasonable time through mutual agreement.

       1. This report may include:

           a. An overview of the previous semester’s programming successes and challenges.

           b. Highlights of the upcoming semester’s programming.

           c. A needs/benefits analysis

5.6 SBS Elections and Representative Turn Over

The Saint Ben’s Senate shall be elected by a majority vote from students of the College of Saint Benedict. The Saint Ben’s Senate election shall be held no later than one month before the end of the school year. Senators shall officially take office for the last two scheduled meetings prior to the start of finals following full transition by the previous Saint Ben’s Senate. A senator’s term ends the day the newly elected Senate holds its first meeting. The sitting Co-Funding Board members shall serve on the Board until the end of the academic year.

II. Impartiality on behalf of the SBS members should be maintained at all times during the election.

III. Students who are elected to the Senate must maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA and be enrolled in a minimum of 12 credits throughout the period of their service. At the end of the spring semester following the election, GPAs and enrollment status of all senators will be verified. Any Senator with a cumulative GPA of 2.40 to 2.49 will be given the fall semester to improve her cumulative GPA to the required 2.5. Any Senator with a GPA of 2.39 or less at the end of the fall semester or registered for less than 12 credits for the spring semester will be notified she is no longer eligible to serve and will be required to resign from the Senate. Any Senator who is placed on academic probation after being elected is automatically ineligible to serve and will be required to resign from the Senate. The Dean of Students is responsible for verifying eligibility and communicating as needed with individual Senators and the Senate President.

IV. Students wishing to be considered for candidacy must submit a Platform and a Declaration of Candidacy.

V. Candidates who complete the qualifications for candidacy shall be announced by the Public Relations Representative and/or the Public Relations Assistant to the student body, at least one (1) week prior to voting.

VI. Candidates who fail to comply with the Election and Campaigning Guidelines are required to be present at a review by the Executive Board to discuss consequences.

VII. The Public Relations Representative will organize elections. In the event that she is running for a position, a new senator shall be appointed to handle their tasks during elections.

VIII. The Public Relations Representative may request that information about elections and/or candidates be shared via institutional platforms, including departmental social media. Any such publication must be inclusive of all candidates running for office.
IX. Special elections shall follow the same election guidelines, campaign guidelines and Election Day procedures as regular elections.

X. Electronic voting will be monitored by a third party and verified by IT Services.

5.6.3 Campaigning Guidelines

I. Campaigning may only begin after the general announcement of candidates by the Public Relations Representative and/or Public Relations Assistant.

II. All campaigning must follow the Residential and Student Activity guidelines for posting.

III. Signs posted in authorized public areas must be approved and stamped.

IV. Split-ticket campaigning, as defined by running for a full-year position with another CSB student (one person per semester), is allowed.

V. Joint campaigning, as defined by collaborative campaigning with another CSB student running for Senate, is allowed.

VI. A current senator is prohibited from endorsing any candidate.

VII. Door to door campaigning is allowed and encouraged after obtaining a solicitation permit from CSB Residential Life.

VIII. Campaign related e-mailing is prohibited.

IX. Signs may be distributed and posted on doors of personal residences, at the discretion of the resident. (Note: Door going into residence halls and apartment buildings, and the hallways within are considered residential life spaces).

X. All publicly posted posters must be removed within twenty-four (24) hours the day following elections.

XI. Departmental, organizational, and club logos are prohibited on any campaign materials, including the CSB Senate logo.

XII. Candidates may not campaign via institutional or departmental social media. Candidates may post in the CSB/SJU Facebook Class Pages.

XIII. Candidates may not use institutional resources to campaign, including but not limited to resources available through a candidate’s student employment position.

XIV. Only CSB students may run a campaign for a position on the Saint Ben’s Senate.

XV. Only CSB students may vote in Saint Ben’s Senate elections.

XVI. If the candidate is unable to deliver her election speech, she can have another CSB student deliver the speech. The CSB student may not be a candidate or current senator.
XVII. If only serving for one semester, the candidate must make this clear in her campaign platform.

XVIII. Campaigning materials may only be posted on the Saint Ben’s campus.

5.6.4 Election Day Procedures

I. Ten (10) days prior to Election Day, voters must be informed of the election date(s) and titles of available positions. The names of candidates and spaces for write-ins will be provided at the discretion of the Public Relations Representative and/or Public Relations Assistant.

II. In the case of write-in candidate, the top candidate must receive a minimum of 20 votes to win the election. If no write in candidate receives the minimum number of votes, the position will remain vacant until a special election can be held.

II. The Public Relations Representative and/or Public Relations Assistant are responsible for ensuring that no CSB student votes more than once.

III. If a candidate would like to contest the results of an election, a written request must be made to the Saint Ben’s Senate within ten (10) business days of the election. The request may be in the form of an email to the CSB Senate account. After the request is made, the Senate will ensure the validity of the election with IT Services and take any necessary measures.

IV. In case of a tie, a run-off election between the tied candidates will be announced, publicized, and held by the Public Relations Representative and/or Public Relations Assistant within fourteen (14) days of the original election.

V. All official candidates are required to remain in the election in the position that they had originally declared candidacy for. They may decline the elected position after the election.
