She is grateful and honored to return to work with the magical Manual Cinema in such a delightful and modern twist on a classic.

Most recently, he found himself as director of photography for Manual Cinema’s shadow puppetry material to be included in the 2020 release of Monkey Paw Productions’ “Candyman” directed by Nia DaCosta.

SHELBY SPARKLE (Stage Manager) Shelby is oh so grateful to have the opportunity to work on this gorgeous production with these amazing humans during these uncertain times. Shelby has been with Manual Cinema for 4 years, stage managing several touring productions that have taken her across the United States and around the world, while also overseeing these touring operations as the company manager. Before joining MC, Shelby stage managed plays all over Chicago with companies like Sideshow Theatre Company, Lifeline Theatre, and The Strange Tree Group. She then went on to stage manage all over the country, including various experimental theatre projects with grad students at the A.R.T. Institute, school touring productions with ArtsPower, and even an opera with Dell’Arte Opera Ensemble. But nothing has brought her as much joy as working and traveling with the incredibly talented artists, puppeteers, and musicians of Manual Cinema.
MIKE USREY (Technical Director and Sound Engineer) “That may be the most important thing to understand about humans. It is the unknown that defines our existence. We are constantly searching, not just for answers to our questions, but for new questions. We are explorers. We explore our lives day by day, and we explore the galaxy trying to expand the boundaries of our knowledge. And that is why I am here: not to conquer you with weapons or ideas, but to coexist and learn.” – Benjamin Lafayette Sisko
