

Brittany Merritt HIST 295A: Debating the French Revolution

Assignment Type:

Digital Museum Exhibit

Project Description/Finished Artifact:

Using the Wix platform, students will construct a virtual museum exhibit on sources (broadly defined) aimed at a general audience to help them understand the significance of the French Revolution. The goal is to interpret and contextualize a primary source in about 1500 words, in order to explain historical events and the experience of the past. This will be accompanied by an 8 to 10-minute presentation to explain the project to the class as well as a reflective essay describing the experience of creating the exhibit.

Information Literacy or Research Description:

Research Proposal that includes a question, a written and a visual primary source that provides evidence for your question, and an annotated bibliography of 4-5 secondary works.

Software/Hardware/Facilities Required:
