Ethical & Sustainable Clothing Brands

- Boden- A company that started in the U.K. and has now gone worldwide. They make clothing items like men's chinos all the way to children's clothing, beachwear, and everything in between.
- Pact- Based out of Colorado, this brand makes sizes from XS-3XL and they are obsessed with making the world a better place. They are clean and responsible as possible.
- Eileen Fisher- This brand is from New York and they are an industry leader in the fashion world. They believe that social and environmental injustices are the main reason to run a business differently.
- Sézane- Started in Paris, this brand started completely online as a way to reduce as much waste as possible. They give back to disadvantaged children to access education and equal opportunities.
- ABLE- Based out of Tennessee but made in Peru, this company believes that in order to end generational poverty, you must create economic opportunities for everyone, especially women.
