June 3-7

The Catholic Epistles: James, 1-2 Peter, 1-3 John, and Jude, are the letters in the New Testament addressed to the entire Church (hence the name catholic). We shall examine basic theological, literary and liturgical themes which emerge from these letters, as well as what these letters say about the state of the churches at the end of the first century AD. What was the shape of orthodoxy and heresy? What social and doctrinal controversies are reflected in these letters? In the second half of the course we will study perhaps the most enigmatic book of the bible: Revelation. Theological, literary and – especially with Revelation – liturgical themes—will be explored, as well as the role of apocalyptic discourse throughout Christian history.
