Develop the ability to recognize, examine and make judgments in ethical issues.

Develop the ability to appreciate Art, music, dance and theater and how it enriches your life by exploring what it means to be human.

Develop greater understanding of diversity while recognizing that individual values are shaped by talking and writing about what it means to be human.

Integrate and apply academic knowledge and skills in activities that extend beyond the traditional classroom. Courses noted as carrying a service learning component can count to fulfill the experiential learning requirement if the student participates in the service learning activities. For more information, consult the faculty member.

Successful completion of language course of 211 or higher or proficiency examination.

Successful completion of course of 211 or higher or proficiency examination.

List of events available at https://apps2.uidaho.edu/sgw/2023FallCourses.aspx
Check your attendance records at https://www.uidaho.edu/registrar/default.aspx

For the most up-to-date information, search by "Attribute" in Banner Web Self Service
The Math course will address the contemporary role of mathematics.

Natural science courses are designed to introduce students to the scientific process, scientific literature, laboratory investigation, and the application of science to real life.

Social science requirement be completed outside the major department. The social science requirement challenges students to think critically and to make informed personal, social, political and economic decisions.

Lower Division (TH): Introduction to the Christian tradition, with special emphasis on the Biblical tradition. Upper Division (TU): Theology 111 will be a prerequisite requirement for this course. Courses fulfilling the Upper Division Theology requirement must focus primarily on religious phenomena: texts, images, artifacts, ideas, practices.