

Acceptable evidence in various disciplines

Humanities: Literature, art, film, music, philosophy

- Passages of text or lines of a poem
- Details from an image or a work of art
- Passages of a musical composition
- Critical essays that analyze original works

Humanities: History

- Firsthand sources such as photographs, letters, maps, and government documents
- Scholarly books and articles that interpret evidence

Social sciences: Psychology, sociology, political science, anthropology

- Data from original experiments
- Results of field research such as interviews, observations, or surveys
- Reports that interpret or analyze data or that place data in context

Sciences: Biology, chemistry, physics

- Data from original experiments
- Scholarly articles that report findings from experiments