1. How do I sign up for a meal plan?

You can sign up for a meal plan by going to the Student Meal Plan Information page on the left side of the SJU Dining Services home page and then clicking Sign Up for a Meal Plan Form link. Or you can visit the SJU Dining Services main office on the first floor of the Quadrangle. Note: All first-year and sophomore students start on the Comfort Plan.

2. Where can I find the different meal plan options?

You can find the different meal plan options by going to the Student Meal Plan Information page of the left side of the SJU Dining Services home page and then clicking the Meal Plan Option link. Or you can visit the SJU Dining Services main office on the first floor of the Quadrangle.

3. How can I change my meal plan?

You can change your meal plan by going to Student Meal Plan Information page on the left side of the SJU Dining Services home page and then clicking Change My Meal Plan Form link. Or you can visit the SJU Dining Services main office on the first floor of the Quadrangle.

4. What are Punches or Weekly Meal Passes?

A Punch or Meal Pass allows a student entrance into the SJU Refectory and the CSB Gorecki Dining Center. (All-you-care-to eat dining halls on the two campuses) All food must be consumed in the dining halls. Weekly meals passes start on Monday and must be used by Sunday evening of each week. They do not transfer to the next week. Students use their Dining Bucks to purchase additional meals during the week as needed.

5. What are Dining Bucks (flex points)?

Dining Bucks are included in the meal plan to give students added meal flexibility. Each Dining Buck has the same value as $1.00. Dining Bucks may be used at any dining locations on either the CSB or the SJU campus. Students use their Dining Bucks to purchase additional meals beyond the weekly passes, or they can be used to purchase individual drinks or snacks. If need be, you may add additional Dining Bucks to your food account by going to the SJU Dining Services main office.

6. What is charging?

Charging means that your student account will be charged an amount equal to whatever you purchase in the eating areas or even at the bookstore.

7. Where can I find the weekly menus for the Refectory and Sexton?

You can find the weekly menus by going to the SJU Dining Services home page. They will be on the upper right-hand side under the dining service hours. Or you can look at the digital signage boards by the cashier in the Refectory or in the front of Sexton.

8. Where can I find the hours for the Refectory and Sexton?

You can find the hours for the Refectory and Sexton by going to the SJU Dining Service home page. They will be on the upper right-hand side of the home page. Or you can go to the Refectory page on the left side of the SJU Dining Services home page for the Refectory hours or Sexton Commons page on the left side of the SJU Dining Services for Sexton hours.

9. Where can I find the nutrition value for the food at the Refectory or Sexton?

You can find the nutrition values for food of the Refectory or Sexton by contacting Cheri Supalla at csupalla@csbsju.edu. Or you can go to the Refectory page on the left side of the SJU Dining Services home page and then go to Menu Nutrition Labels page under the Refectory page for the Refectory menu nutrition labels. For valuable nutrition links, you can go to the Nutrition Links page on the left side bar of the SJU Dining Services home page.
